

French III* Speaking Test: Unité 2 Role A

Your best friend just left a message inviting you to go to the midnight premier of a movie you have been looking forward to seeing for a long time. Your parents will only let you go if you finish tons of your chores around the house before the show. You call your friend back and ask him/her to help get it done in time. Act out the phone conversation.

Call your friend back to ask for help.

Your friend turns you down twice & gives excuses.

Finally, your friend accepts and asks what you want him/her to do to help. Explain what you both have to do to get the job done.

Thank him/her for the help!

French III* Speaking Test: Unité 2 Role B

You just got tickets to the midnight premier of a movie you and your best friend have wanted to see for a long time. You left a message inviting your friend to go tonight, but he/she calls back to explain that he/she can only go if he/she finishes tons of household chores first. Your friend begs for your help. Act out the phone conversation.

You turn him down twice and explain why.

Finally, you give in and accept to help. Ask what he/she wants/needs you to do. You may want to ask for clarification.

When your friend thanks for your help, tell him he/she is welcome.
